Oktoberfest 2012

Date: 2012-10-17
Timing: 22:00 h. - 02:00 h.
Rating: ★★★★★
Address: Gran Vía de les Corts Catalanes, 622, Barcelona

Otto Sylt and Gran Vía Maximilian morning welcome from the second edition of the popular German beer festival: Oktoberfest. Until October 31th, customers who come to both restaurants, run by AN Grup, will enjoy the most delicious German cuisine based on their traditional sausages and the best beers of the world in a festive atmosphere. During the two weeks of the event, Otto Maximilian Sylt and Gran Vía will recreate the atmosphere and uniqueness of German breweries.

The original Oktoberfest, which takes place between September and October in Munich, has become an internationally renowned festival which is attended each year more than six million visitors. The first edition was held in 1810 and since then there are many cities that have imported the celebration around the world, including Barcelona.

For second year, Otto Sylt and Gran Vía Maximilian join this Bavarian tradition to bring to Barcelona one of the most important festivals in Europe. Wreaths, german flags, groomed waiters wearing traditional Bavarian dresses, sausages, beer mugs, gifts, surprises ... For two weeks everything will revolve around this festival.

Don't miss this popular German festival and stay in one of our comfortable apartments in Barcelona.
